

Welcoming Team: Role & Responsibilities

Welcoming Team Overview:

We want people to feel loved and welcomed the moment they enter the church, whether it be their first visit or whether they have been members of the Cornerstone family for many years. We would like to expand our team of people who will stand at the main door and greet others with a friendly smile and a warm welcome.

Time commitment: One Sunday per month. Arrive at church by 10am

Overseen by- Rae

Responsibilities:

- To arrive at church by 10am.
- To wear the yellow welcoming lanyard (...also, watch this space for the possible arrival of welcoming Cornerstone polo shirts!)
- To stand at the door from 10/10:10am onwards to welcome people as they arrive
- To assist where required (eg directing people to easier access entrance, taking new people/visitors into the main hall and introducing them to someone).
- To be aware during the service of any practical assistance which may be required.
